DO YOU SEE WHAT I SEE?

WRITE THE VISION, AND MAKE IT PLAIN..
- HABAKKUK 2:2

ED GOODMAN - DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Do You See What I See?

“Write the vision, and make it plain...”

- Habakkuk 2:2

An office worker once requested a pay raise and received a rather confusing email back from her supervisor: Due to the fluctuating predisposition of your position's productive capacity as juxtaposed to standardized industrial norms, it is currently injudicious to advocate your petitioned increase.

The puzzled employee went to her supervisor and said, “If this is about my pay raise, I don't get it.”

The supervisor nodded in agreement and said, “That's exactly right.”

Sometimes the way we communicate can cause confusion rather than create clarity. Complex, complicated, or convoluted ideas must be simplified so that people can understand what we intend to convey. This is especially crucial when casting vision. Vision, according to John Maxwell, is “a picture of a desired future.” With that in mind, I am inviting you to look together with me at the future of our association - who we will be, where we will go, and what we will strive to accomplish. Do you see what I see?

A Clear Vision

The UOVBA executive board recently made a wise leadership decision by approving a much-needed update to our associational mission and vision statement. Why? Because good leaders seek to make their mission as clear as possible. Previously, our mission statement stood separately from the vision statement. By combining the mission and vision into a single statement, our association now enjoys a better understanding about why we exist and what we are seeking to accomplish. Consider our simple and straightforward purpose.

The Upper Ohio Valley Baptist Association exists to serve, supply, and strengthen local churches in cooperative fulfillment of the Great Commission.

Churches, the association exists because of you. The UOVBA is a ministry created by the churches, comprised of the churches, and cooperating with the churches. We are working each day to help churches grow stronger. Our vision is clear. Do you see what I see?

A Comprehensive Vision

Churches, your association is called to serve you, supply you, and strengthen you. Our mission and vision statement is broad enough to encompass a wide variety of ministries, yet narrow enough to keep us focused on churches. We serve churches by furnishing consultation (e.g., the All In Initiative), facilitating communication (through the Valley Voice, the UOVBA website, Facebook, One Call, and our “Voices of the Valley” broadcast), and fostering cooperation. We supply churches with relationships (e.g., pastoral resumes, supply preachers, and fellowship opportunities) and resources (like ministry training, mission trips, and measuring tools for church and ministry analysis). We can evaluate how we strengthen churches by looking at data through the Annual Church Profile (ACP) and other sources of demographic data (like the U.S. Census Bureau and the Association of Religion Data Archives). By utilizing the expertise of your associational staff, all 21 UOVBA churches may benefit from this comprehensive vision. Do you see what I see?

A Compelling Vision

Dr. R. Albert Mohler, Jr., president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, once astutely observed, “Deep beliefs drive visions and plans.” Our collective mission and vision is rooted in a powerful and passionate belief: that churches can bring transformation to people, communities, and the world. Think about that! The Great Commission (Matt. 28:18-20) instructs churches to reach the lost, teach the saved, and make disciples through the promised power and presence of Jesus Christ. Thus, transformation occurs when churches function as ambassadors of Christ (2 Cor. 5:20) in their communities!

TRANSFORMATION

AMBASSADORS OF CHRIST (2 COR.
5:20) IN THEIR

YOUR CHURCH HAS
THE ANSWER FOR THE OPIOID EPIDEMIC. YOUR CHURCH HAS THE SOLUTION FOR BROKEN HOMES.
YOUR CHURCH HAS
THE POWER TO LOVE
YOUR NEIGHBORS
STRUGGLING WITH HOPELESSNESS AND HEARTBREAK.

Your church has the answer for the opioid epidemic. Your church has the solution for broken homes. Your church has the power to love your neighbors struggling with hopelessness and heartbreak. Your church is called to be a beacon of hope in the community you call home, and your association is called to help you shine the Light into the darkness. Will you embrace this compelling vision?

The answer for all the ills in the Upper Ohio Valley is Jesus Christ. Over 392,000 people in ten counties across three states need what only He can give: salvation, security, and satisfaction. I'm investing my life and ministry in this region because, through the assurance of God's call, I believe our churches will be God's tools for transformation.

EXCLUSIVE

OUT OF THE ASHES

This past July, Faith Community Church in north Wheeling suffered a major loss when the place they were meeting each Sunday (the Augusta Levi Center) caught fire. That morning, DOM Ed Goodman visited Pastor Pete Carney to pray and contemplate Faith’s next steps.

As news of this fire went out across the association, God opened the hearts of individuals and local churches to reach out in whatever way possible. One reason we are better together is this, that same afternoon the churches of the UOVBA started to reachout offering assistance and aid right away.

Some were willing to give bibles, and projection screens, others a sound system. God was also opening up financial opportunity as the UOVBA family offered up major financial gifts, showing the church that they are not alone in this. The following morning, they met on a piece of property they owned at the location of their future church and worshiped outside. God was bringing them together and showing them that He is at work even in the mist of this loss.

..The community around them is hearing the gospel..

Every Sunday since, they have been meeting in a tent from the association. They have an even louder voice as they worship outside. The community around them is hearing the gospel as Faith Community Church meets for worship.

Financial gifts are being used to help kick-start the building project of the future church building. Your giving to the Ola Cox State Missions Offering is helping Faith Community Church by providing additional funds for the building project.

Please keep Faith Community Church in your prayers as they continue this building project. They will be in need of mission teams as projects begin. Ask God to guide you in ways that you would be able to help whether it's through additional financial giving, serving through a mission team or partnering in prayer. This is all the more reason why we are #BETTERTOGETHER as Faith Community Church and the UOVBA grows stronger out of the ashes.

KEVIN
SMITH

We are grateful to have Dr. Jimmy Scroggins (pastor, author, developer of "3 Circles") and Dr. Kevin Smith (Executive Director, Baptist Convention of Maryland/Delaware) for our 2018 state evangelism conference, INSPIRE!

As we live in this cultural moment as Christians, if we have a renewed God-sized, God-given posture of courage, then we will be freed up to be the people of God, living out the mission of God, marked by the joy of God. With courage, this season of history can be viewed not with fear and dread, but with hope and a sense of opportunity.

Jimmy and Kevin both have an exceptional understanding of the issues in the culture and how we should address them from a gospel perspective. Topics will also include "3 Circles" training.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. and we'll kick off at 9:30 a.m.

Lunch and books/resources will be provided.

The conference is designed for pastors and lay leaders.

If you need to reserve a hotel room, call the Wingate by Wyndham Bridgeport, 304.808.1000. Mention the Inspire Conference Rate, CGC0SB ($75/night + tax).

Space is limited.
